

Remembering the Fallen this Memorial Day

May 24, 2018

SYLMAR, Calif. (May 24, 2018) – For many of us, Memorial Day weekend is filled with fun, family and friends. As we welcome the unofficial beginning of summer, we will celebrate by grilling, going to the beach, attending a parade, or watching a baseball game. Without a doubt, it's an exciting time of the year.

While we participate in these joyful gatherings, let's also take time to reflect on the reason for Memorial Day – to remember those who paid the ultimate price safeguarding our freedoms. Without their sacrifice, much of what we all enjoy today may not be possible.

So this Memorial Day, whether you're at home or on the go, please take a moment to remember those who died for our freedoms, and to honor their memory. Wishing you and yours a happy and safe Memorial Day!
